Policies for Library Study Rooms:

- The walls and windows may not be covered or altered by users of the room.

- Rooms must be ready to use when vacated. No personal items may be left behind. Furniture, whiteboard, marker and eraser must stay in the study room.

- Do not leave any personal material unattended. The library is not responsible for any thefts.

- Please maintain the condition of the study room and library items belonging in the study room.

- Unlawful behavior while in the library, including, but not limited to assault, damage to library property, theft, indecent exposure or sex acts, use of drugs or intoxication is prohibited.

- Deadbolt locks on the door are to be used in emergencies only.