

SECTION 801.07

Salary Advances

Employees are urged to handle their financial affairs responsibly so that obligations will not become an administrative burden. It is the policy of the University to disallow salary advances for any reason.