

SECTION 807.06

Open Records Act.

The Georgia Open Records Act as amended in 1988 and 1992 provides that anyone may request access to public records/documents that are prepared or maintained by a University department or office. Certain records are not subject to disclosure, e.g., medical.

Requests for records/documents should be referred to the Custodian of Public Records in the Office of the Vice President for Academic Affairs.