

Photos from a field trip to a police department in Taiwan

These photos were taken in the past two years from our field trips conducted to a mid-sized police department in southern Taiwan. The snapshots shown below highlight this visit. It was a very informative and an exciting visit!

A group photo taken at the front entrance of the police department, the symbol on the top of the hall represents Taiwanese police

Practicing handcuffs, rifles and other police tools

A forensic expert is explaining the use of an equipment to examine images of an ID card

Capturing fingerprints from a DVD

Test of a breathalyzer

