SPARK YOUR PASSION FUEL YOUR FUTURE

The Ed.D. degree with a Major in Curriculum and Instruction offers an engaging and flexible educational model designed to fit the busy schedules of those working in P-12 environments. Our innovative program provides practical opportunities for students to relate theoretical foundations to curricular and instructional issues facing schools and other educational systems. You will enjoy learning from our quality faculty whose real-world experience and knowledge has been acquired through many years of learning, researching, and working in the domains of our field. This program is approved by the Georgia Performance Standards Commission and prepares you for a level S7 certification in Curriculum & Instruction.

Our program is delivered through a combination of online and face-to-face courses. 10 of the required courses are taught completely online requiring you to never physically come to our campus. There are five research sequence courses that are taught in a hybrid format that include occasional face-to-face classes meetings in Valdosta up to four Friday nights and Saturdays per semester. Electives will vary in delivery format based on your approved selections.
