

FOUR – TWO – ONE strategy

Setting the climate for co-teaching

On your own, generate FOUR words that capture the most important aspect of our training thus far. Use your graphic organizer to list your answers.

With a partner, discuss and compare your lists then agree of TWO words that best describe the key learning for today and enter those in the appropriate rectangles on the form.

With a group of three or four discuss and agree on ONE word that best describes the learning experience about setting the climate for co-teaching.
